CLASS MOTTO

If you see a star, wish on it.
If you see a door, open it.
If you have a chance, take it.
Leave no stone unturned.
Chase every rainbow
'Til the ultimate end.
Squeeze every drop out of life.
Never regret anything you do,
And be filled with love.

"The Class That Produced A President"

In the year 2003 we find the Class of '83 in every one of the fifty states and three foreign countries. President of the United States, 38-year-old Daniel Lavender is preparing for his re-election campaign by visiting each state. His first stop is the booming metropolis of Ashland, Ohio. The Miss USA Pagenat is being held here. Miss Jacqueline Falter, formerly Jack Falter, the victim of a lawn mower accident, has won the competition and also the President's heart. Cocktails were being served by flight attendant Darcy Russell when turbulence shook the plane frantically. A familiar voice came over the PA telling the President not to worry. The President knows that voice belongs to Dawn Main Bender. She is the President of the Pilot's Union and she always holds the annual Pilot's Convention at the Bender Farm in Loudonville.

When the President and his wife were enjoying dinner on the plane up from the cargo hold came three men carrying guns with stockings on their heads. Their intent was to hijack the plane to Cambodia where Randy Hamrick was waiting with his leftist guerillas to overthrow the government. When the three men realized that they knew the President personally they took off their masks, revealed themselves as Mike Glauner, Dennis Sheibe and Jim Baldner and screamed, "Let's Party!"

When the plane finally landed in New York, after circling the city for two hours in order to finish the party, Mike, Dennis and Jim are arrested by Mike Carpenter, the Chief of Police. On the way to the hotel the President's limo is involved in a fender bender and they had to take it to Chad Helberts auto body shop. There was even a rumor that Randy Hamrick was helping him open a new one in Cambodia. As Randy was looking for a place to build the new garage he came upon a cave. In it he found long lost Matt Harned. The cave was full of chemistry and physics books and calculators. Matt's batteries were still running. Meanwhile, the President is being served dinner in his hotel room by Kim Hoverstock Morgan, recruited from her head waitress job at Ferroni's. This grade A beef was produced by Greg Trayter's 5000 acre spread. The cream for the President's coffee was imported from Ellen Stoner's award winning chain of dairy farms. After dinner the President enjoyed the evenings entertainment by opera singer JoNell Amos accompanied by the New York Symphony conducted by Master Composer Nicholous Robert McGovern.

Bright and early the next day the President boarded the Presidential Yacht enroute to Texas by way of the East Coast. The President had the time of his life and requested the presence of the cruise director, so that he could express his profound gratitude. When the cruise director came to his cabin he recognized her as Trish Ebert one of his best friends in high school. The President found out that the reason she could give such good parties was because she was still single and loving every minute of it. There was a knock on the door and when the President answered he found a porter standing there who was none other than Earl Bowman. Earl told the President that the ship might be running into some rough water, but it was nothing serious. Just at that moment, the power went out and the waves rocked the ship. But through the sounds of the clashing waves they heard help coming. It was Admiral Gwen Killey of the USS Falcon, crewmen David Koenig, Richard Echley and John Yeater helped lead the President and his party to safety. The USS Falcon lands at its home port, Daytona Beach. There on the beach were perennial partiers Angie Chapman, Treasa Andrews and Rhonda Kyser. The girls treated their long lost friends to an evening at the nearest nightclub, where Jim Trine, a male stripper and Laurie Schultz a stand up comedian were entertaining.

Meanwhile, Barry Yeater, GM engineer, plots an assassination attempt on President Lavender. It seems Barry was upset because Danny gave Chrysler another grant. Barry was ecstatic when he learned the President was coming to town the next morning because it gave him just enough time to perfect his plan.

So Barry dropped Danny while his motorcade travelled through downtown Detroit. Coroner Kevin Kahl pronounced the President dead as having and I quote "kicked the bucket" and Janice Kaufman, Vice President, was sworn in by the Speaker of the House Jeff Draper who moonlighted as a singing telegram man. Back at the hospital, Bernie Rieser, doctor of medicine, psychology, love, etc., with his skilled medical team of Lisa Anderson, Darla Jarvis, Jami Lemaster Stoner, Jackie Clarke, Margee Hoover Folks rescued the President from the clutches of death.

When Dan reached consciousness he learned that he was only a co-president and that Dave Richilano was his only hope of regaining complete power. Dave, who carried on the family business was now a mafia hit man in his own right. Dave headed for Washington D.C. At Washington, Janice was holding an inaugural ball. Entertainment at the ball was rock super star Paul Rogers and hanging at his ankles was Michelle Bachmann, a rock groupie.

Back in Detroit, Danny regained strength with the help of Pam Hofer, Physical Therapist. Upset with Dave's attendance at the ball was Jim Denny, Chief of Protocol at the White House. Jim refused to let Dave pass so Dave proceeded to lecture on Physics which immediately put Jim to sleep. As Dave lurked in the shadows he noticed many old class mates whom Janice had appointed to high government positions. Jeannie Eckley, Chief of Staff at the White House; Jack McClure, Secretary of Defense; Tonja Walburn, Secretary of Interior Decorating; Teresa Grindstaff, Secretary of Agriculture, who had lead protesting farmers on tractors through the White House Rose Garden.

Meanwhile back in Detroit, President Lavender prepared for what he thought would be his triumphal return to D.C. However, women across America had come to greatly admire President Janice and stood firmly behind her. So when they learned of Dan's aspirations millions of women protestors flocked to Detroit airport. The group was led by Jill Mumaw, Brenda Schonauer, Jenny Sparr, Christine Pletcher and Chief Activist for Equality of Women, Vaughn Pennington.

The President miraculously made it back to Washington where he learned that Janice had returned to being V.P. after a scary assassination attempt by Dave Richilano. President Lavender attended the trial and among the nine justices were Chief Justice Monti Shambaugh, Lori Kittle, second woman justice and Vaughn Barnett. While awaiting Dave's trial they caught the tail end of the trial of Kate Bartter fashion buyer and editor of Vogue. Kati, who pleaded freedom of press had been accused of indecency when she published photos of beautiful scantily clad men in her magazine. As punishment, Kati was reprimanded and ordered to give Justice Kittle a lifetime subscription. Kati, who was appalled at the harshness of the punishment, exploded with anger and was bodily removed from the court room by Frank Telakowicz head of court security.

The trial began with witness Kenny Slavokovsky member of the inaugural ball chorus line. He, however, provided no information. Further testimony was given by Dan Bake, bartender at the ball, Robbin Clarke, the hat check girl and Diane Schwiger Abdullah wife of the Prime Minister of Ocawonga. Kevin Baldner, lawyer for the Class of '83 divorce court, took time off from his lucrative career to defend Dave. Prosecuting attorney was Stanton Winbigler, president of Winbigler Lumber Empire. When Stanton sees his case failing he brings in surprise witness Jacqueline Falter Lavender who having once been jilted by Dave released a flurry of evidence defaming his character.

After four hours of deliberation the verdict was that Dave was guilty. Just as the verdict was announced the doors burst apart and the Godfather, Steve Van Gilder and his benchmen, Matt Luikart, Skip McClure and Rick Mosher grabbed Dave and fled. Rumor has it that they're in Cambodia with Randy and working in Chad's auto body shop.

The President and his party then returned to the White House and he retired for the evening. Danny wanted to go visit Brad Browne but he was in the hills of Kentucky fishing for carp and catfish. So instead they made a state visit to England to visit Princess Rebecca Hoover, wife of Prince Andrew. Becky was introduced to Andrew by the Queen as a reward for having eliminated Koo Stark. They were entertained at the House of Windsor by the Amazing Browning Brothers, world class jugglers and musical guests Maggie and the Keener Weiners who were Teresa Denning, Linda Geib and Sandy Gibbs. Michele Charman was lady in waiting to the Queen. Another dinner guest was Duke of York Oswalt who was accompanied by Lady Nancy O'Dell.

The following day President Lavender went riding with the Queen. So he was instructed by Ronnita Kreiling and Tammy Kirchbaum horse trainers for the Royal Family. Secret Service Agents Scott Martin and Dave McQuillen followed the President and the Queen quickly on foot "dodging all foreign objects".

Meanwhile Jacqueline attended a fashion show with designs by Corinne Amend Asson and accomplished Parisian fashion designer. With fashions modeled by world famous models Dee Austin, Brenda Beck and Leslie Lloyd. Back at the ranch, President Lavender got lost in the Royal Woods which were managed by Tina Kiefer. President Lavender before leaving England needed to hire Kathy Smith who owned a long-haul truck company to carry all the clothes Jackie bought at the fashion show. Robyn Whitsel, customs agent, tried to sort through the mess but after two days she collapsed from exhaustion. Before returning to the U.S., the first couple dropped by Zumbaube Zebra Zoo, managed by Debbie Zonker. They drove to downtown Zimbaube saw the zebras and Zonker, bought a zipper and xylophone and headed for home happy to have been reunited with his former classmates.

REMEMBER WHEN

In eighth grade when Randy Hamrick ate 2 pieces of ex-lax gum in health class and we never saw him the rest of the day.

Kevin Baldner drove his car to school and forgot about it and rode home on the bus.

Jim Denny wasn't acting dumb? Neither do we!

Danny Lavender and Kevin Baldner got whacked for playing hockey with Charlie Grindstaff's coat.

Remember in 8th grade when Matt Harned changed his gym shorts during a fire drill outside!

Kate Bartter in the 5th grade wore her yellow dress and sat with legs spread wide apart at the band concert in front of the entire audience.

When Becky did cartwheels down the 3rd floor hallway of Jeromesville and Mrs. Brown made her write "I will not do cartwheels in the hallway" 1000 times.

Chad and Leslie went together and Barry and Ellen went together and then they switched.

Barry unhooked Kathy's bra in the middle of class in Jr. High.

Barry's darkroom.

When Nick McGovern looked like Woody Allen and carried a brief case.

Nick, in first grade, brought cupcakes with "P's" on them to celebrate Picasso's birthday.

Gwen got chewed out by Mr. Burdette for doing doughnuts in the parking lot!

Mr. Cox left the room during a video tape and we changed the channel to watch "Three's Company"!

Mrs. Miner came to Latin class with her skirt unzipped.

Vaughn told Pam he'd never been swallowed before when he kissed her at Chris's party.

In third grade Gwen took her shirt off to play baseball with the boys.

Dan Baker made an obscene gesture at Ken Slavkovsky and he took a picture of it and Dan worried for a week that Mr. Fair would see it.

Jenna Dolan and Laurie Schultz used to crawl out of Jr. High Science Class.

We didn't have fruit cocktail? Neither do we!

Mr. Burns was attacked by a killer slide rule.

Dewey Headley in eighth grade basketball.

In last year's Chemistry class, Mr. Burns hit himself in the head with a ruler and knocked his glasses off.

Mike Glauner got caught swinging on his locker by Mr. Nelson and had his locker privileges taken away.

Kevin Kahl hit Stephanie Young in 8th grade science class.

Vaughn and Shellie weren't caught kissing. Neither do we!

Tresea Andrews and Kathy Smith got kicked out of Latin Class for smiling!

Matt Luikart drowned Mr. House's laboratory mice in 8th grade.

Trish Ebert and Kim Hoverstock used to chase Stanton Winbigler in 4th grade. When they would catch him, they would smother him with kisses.

In 8th grade choir we had book fights and Monti Shambaugh put his head through the window.

In 5th grade when Randy Hamrick cleaned the erasers by pounding them against his body and head.

Matt Harned wore his band uniform to the bonfire in 9th grade.

Michelle Bachmann used to eat breakfast in chemistry class.

We were watching "Films" in the library.

HOMECOMING 1982

The 1982 Homecoming was filled with excitement. Thursday night the annual Homecoming Bonfire was held with the King and his court being selected. These included: Scott Long — Freshman, Tom Strine — Sophomore, Keith Hobby — Junior, Dave Richilano and Steve VanGilder — Seniors, and Dan Lavender — King. On Friday, the pre-game ceremonies began and the beautiful Homecoming Court was chauffeured around the track and introduced to the crowd by Student Council President Gwen Killey. Freshman Attendant was Lynn Echelberger, while the Sophomores were represented by Kim Overholt and the Juniors were represented by Cheri Helbert. The three Senior queen candidates were Michelle Bachman, Darla Jarvis, and Trish Ebert. Margi Stake, last year's queen, gave a short speech and then crowned the new Homecoming Queen, Darla Jarvis. Saturday night was the dance with the first dance belonging to the Queen and King and their courts. The Student Council provided decorations and refreshments while the music was played by WWST D.J. Music Unlimited. It was a weekend filled with memories for all.

Hillsdale High School Thespians presented "Meet Me In St. Louis" a three act comedy centering around the zany antics of the Smith family as the fall play.

Just as the Smith family gets into the excitement of the upcoming World's Fair of 1904, Mr. Smith announces they are moving to New York. The children are horrified at the thought of leaving — just as everyone else is coming to St. Louis. So they set about trying to sabotage their father's plans. Things get out of hand as trolley cars get derailed, relationships break up and Mr. Smith even loses his job. With a little ingenuity on the part of the Smith's three girls everything gets back to normal and the Smithes stay in their beloved St. Louis.

The seventeen member cast including Nick McGovern, Janice Kaufman, Becky Hoover, Wendi Weikel, Julie McGinnis and Jennifer Gossett as the Smith family was led by Judith Ream and student director Brian Weaver.

Performances were given on November 19th and 20th.

This was a successful year for everyone attending the JVS.

Most everyone had been active in DECA, FFA, FHA, OEA, or VICA. Some of the students participated in contest against other schools and had the honor to go to State Contest to compete with other students around the state. We are very proud of everyone who took interest and participated in this event. Another highlight of the JVS was the Student of the Month Award. The recipients of this award were Rick Austen, Ronnita Kreiling, and Debbie Zonker. Ronnita and Debbie were also chosen Student of the Year recipients.

The awards assembly that was held on May 19th, for the seniors, brought many shining faces because they were glad they were finally out of school or proud of the awards given to them. A few of the outstanding awards given were: Danforth Scholarship Award — Ronnita Kreiling; Perfect Attendance — Mark Browning, Ronnita Kreiling, and Debbie Zonker. Mark was also awarded for having perfect attendance for the past seven years. Congratulations to all!

ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

This year's spring play was Annie Get Your Gun a three-act comedy adapted from the original Broadway musical version. Jennifer Gossett starred as Annie Oakley, a young country girl whose skill as a sharpshooter got her a place in the famous Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show.

Annie falls in love with the show's dashing star Frank Butler (Barry Yeater) but Frank's resentment at being beaten by a girl in a shooting match, keeps the two from getting together. When Frank leaves Buffalo Bill's Show and joins a rival troupe, Annie and Frank are miserable apart. Members of the opposite troupes try to get the two together and merge the two shows for financial reasons. However the old argument of "Who is the better shot?" comes up and the plans fall apart. Finally Annie realizes that you can't get a man with a gun and the show ends on a happy note.

Other members of the cast included: David Russell, Kate Bartter, Dawn Main, Tom Hawks, Darrin Hoover, Vaughn Pennington, Keith Hobby and Doug Selva. Annie Get Your Gun was performed on March 25 and 26 under the direction of Judith Ream and student director Dee Austin.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, THE BIG APPLE

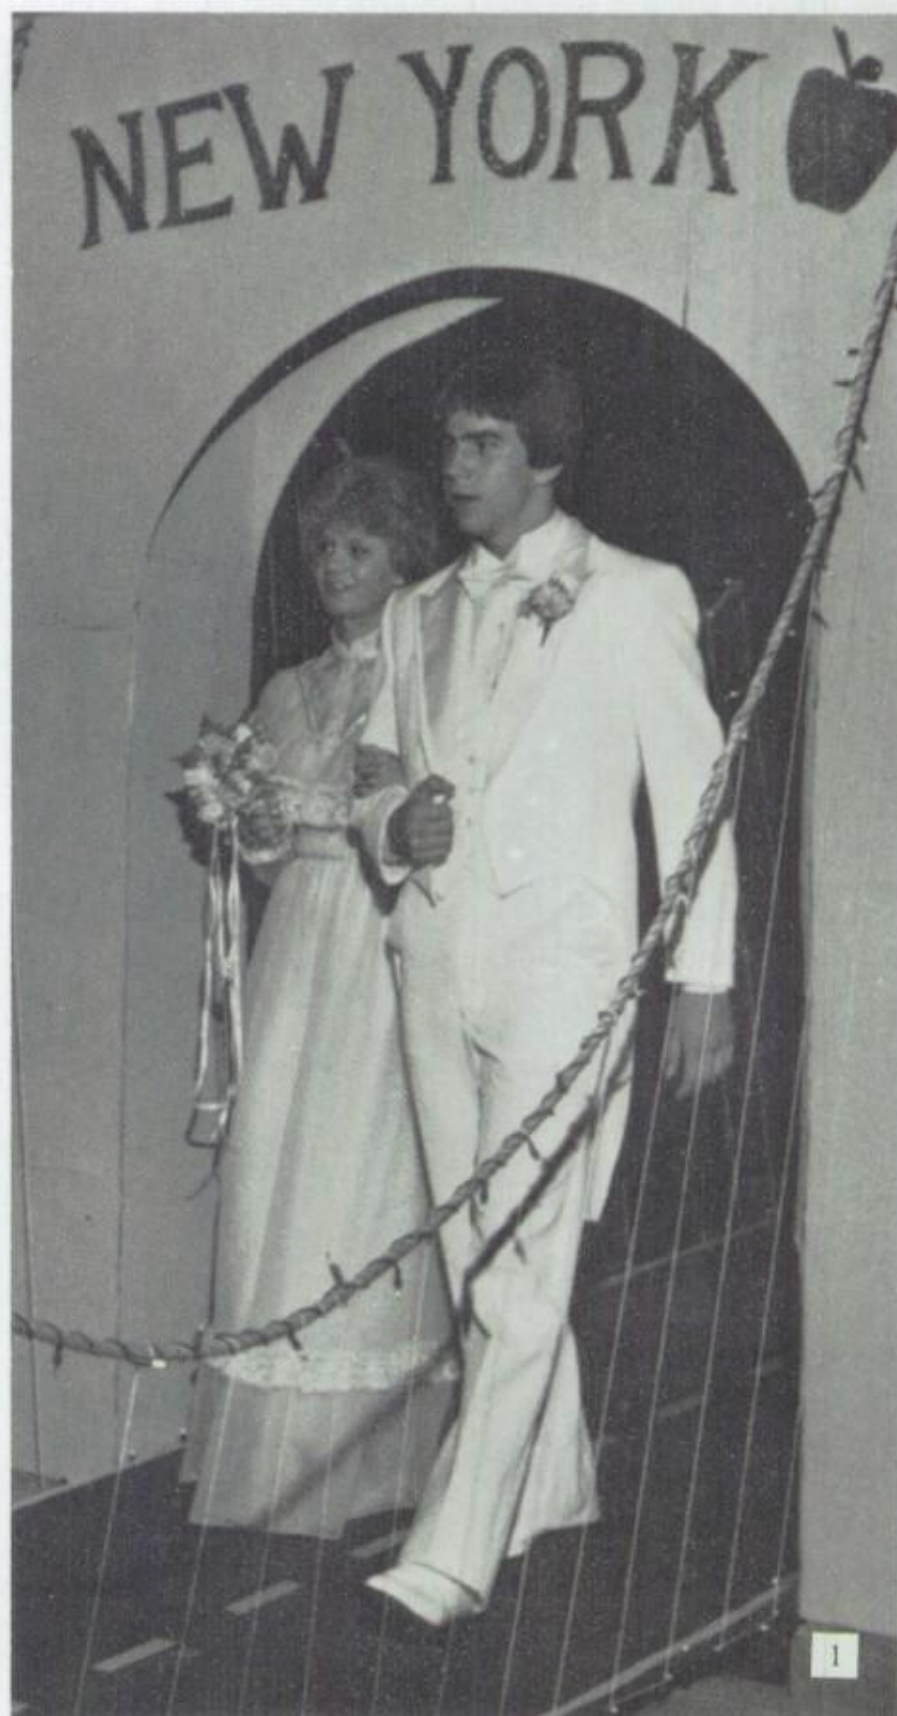

New York, New York, the Big Apple was the setting which materialized in the Hillsdale Gym to provide the atmosphere for the 1983 Junior-Senior Prom.

What a success. Who would have thought that they could have seen Central Park and the Brooklyn Bridge right in their own backyard.

Music was provided by "Broke" and those in attendance enjoyed dancing to their tunes until time to move on to the Post Prom.

The Post Prom was again held at Park Lanes in Mansfield with the traditional breakfast being held back at the high school around 3 a.m.

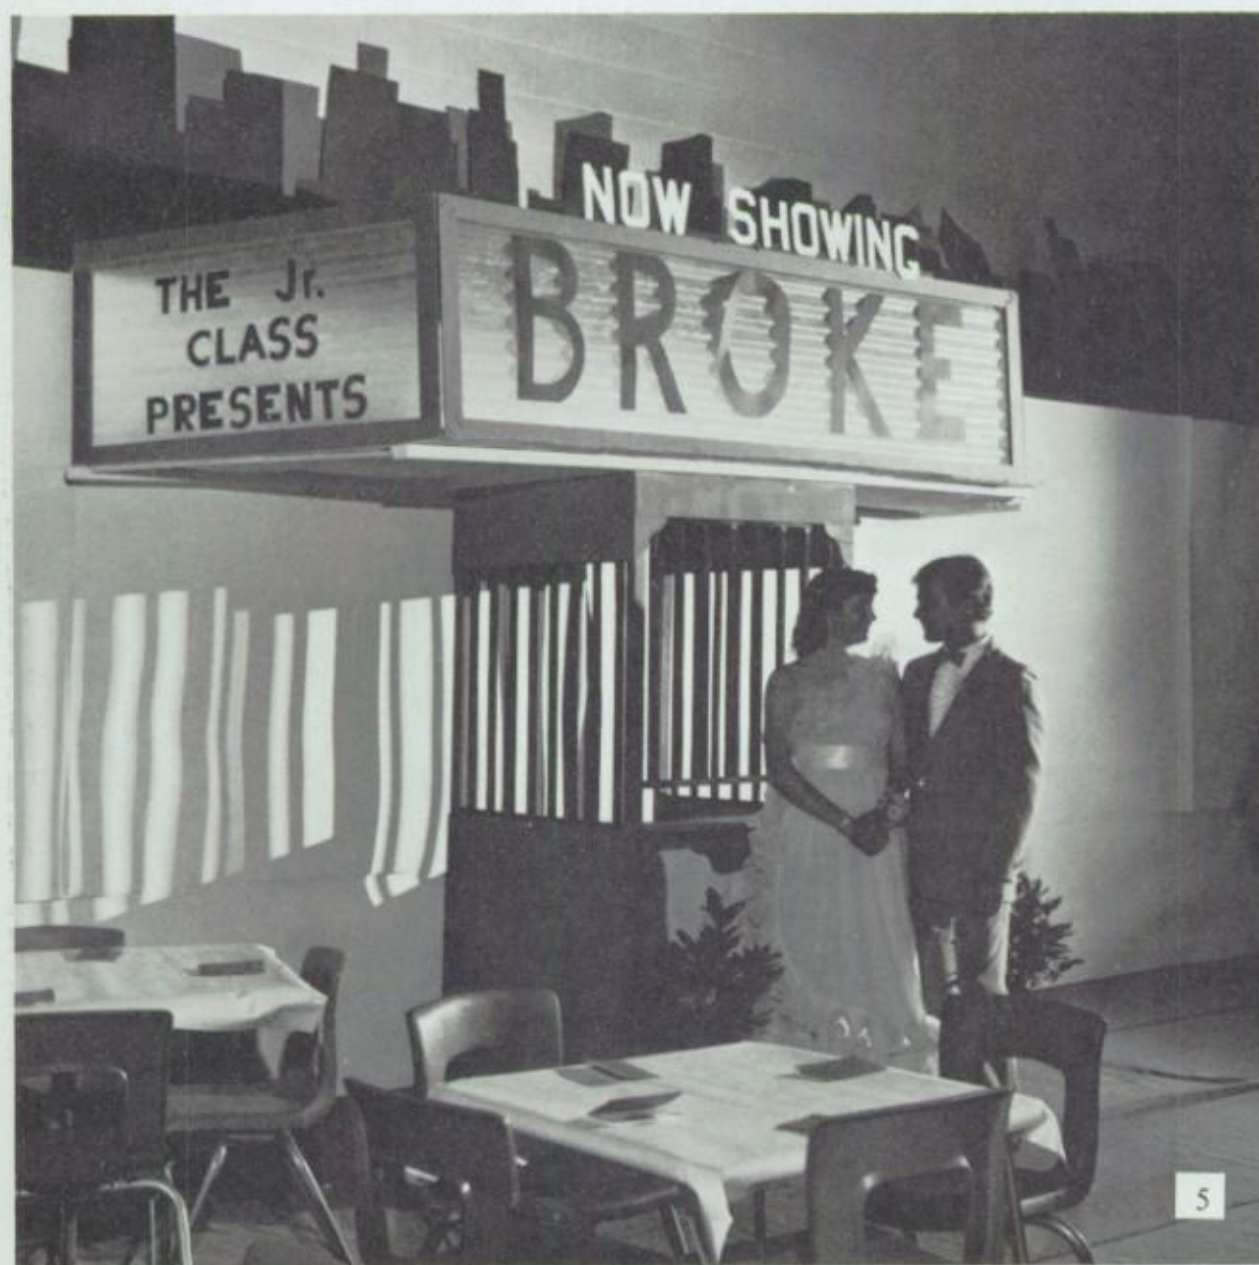

Everyone will remember New York, New York for a long time in the years to come.

MATMEN FINISH 6-3

The 1982-1983 wrestlers had a good year with a 6-3 record. The season ended on a strong point as the team placed third at the Sectional Meet and qualified nine wrestlers for district, these include John Teeple, Dan Baker, Jeff Young, Greg Trayter, Eric Bee, Roger Briggs, Lee Erhardt, Clinton French, Brian Weirick. With a lot of freshmen and sophomores wrestling well at the end of the year, Coach Edwards is looking forward to next year.

TEEPLE 4th AT STATE

In 1983 the Falcon Wrestlers were proud to send two of the outstanding members of the team to the state finals. Senior, Dan Baker, was the sectional champ and took second place in the NEO District, thus qualifying for the State Meet. He put on a good show there, however did not place. Junior, John Teeple, took second place in the NEO District in his weight class and went on to give a fine performance and placed fourth in the State.

FINISH 2nd IN WCL

The 1982 volleyball team with eight senior members had a fine 12-7 season bringing home the sectional championship and second place in the Wayne County League. Wendy Russell, Laurie Schultz, and Gwen Killey were named to the Honorable Mention WCL Team while Kathy Miller was named to the 1st TEAM WCL. The 1983 season will be a rebuilding season with the graduation of our eight seniors.

FALCON FOOTBALL

The 1982 football team had a tough time of it this year. They began the season with a tie against Lucas but couldn't pull a win out this year; there were some very close ones though. Steve Van-Gilder, Brad Browne, and Dan Lavender were named to the WCL Honorable Mention Team, while those three plus Jack Falter were named to the Honorable Mention Team in Ashland County. We congratulate these Seniors.

GLAUNER RUNS AT STATE

With the help of senior leaders Mike Glauner, Nick McGovern, and Barry Yeater, 1982 may have been the turnaround for cross country at Hillsdale. The Falcons came on strong at the end of the year and placed second at the sectional cross country meet and qualified for districts. At the district meet the team placed fifth in a very strong field while Mike Glauner qualified for the State Finals. Mike made a fine showing there and set a new school record, covering the 3.1 mile course in 17 min. 17 sec. With 10 sophomores and 6 freshmen on the team this year the 1983 season looks very promising.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders this year were a very busy group. In July the 10 girls on the Varsity and J.V. basketball squads attended camp and were awarded the Spirit Key. Two girls were given Cheerleader Of The Day Awards, Kim Hoverstock and Kathy Miller. Later in the season both the J.V. and Varsity squads received 2nd place in an Ashland College Competition. All year long the cheerleaders, under the guidance of Fran Lavender, were busy making signs, planning pep rallies and supporting their teams.

J.V. AND FRESHMEN B'BALL

The 1982-83 J.V. Boys Basketball team saw itself faced with a 2-7 record mid-way through the season. However Coach Bargar turned that around. Despite many players splitting their time between Varsity and J.V. the last ten games of the year proved to be the best. The J.V.'s won six of these last ten games, upping their record to 8-11 for the season. The freshman basketball team also had a very good year losing only four games in regular season play. In the Wayne County League Freshman Tournament the Falcon Freshmen placed 3rd. We look forward to having these talented freshmen and sophomores on the J.V. and Varsity teams next year.

FALCONS IMPROVE RECORD

The 1982-83 Varsity Basketball team ended the season with a 5-15 season. The record does not show the work and effort put forward by our team. This effort paid off for three of our senior players. Brad Browne, Danny Lavender, and Barry Yeater were chosen to play in the Wilbur-Berkey Classic. Brad and Danny were also chosen to the Honorable Mention Team in the WCL. Barry Yeater was chosen to the 1st Team in the WCL and was also picked Honorable Mention All-Area in Wayne County. In addition Barry and Danny were chosen to the Times-Gazette All-Area Teams, Danny on the Honorable Mention list and Barry on the 1st Team. The Falcons were cheered on by Falcon Mascot, Jack Falter. The 1982-83 Falcons were coached by John Boston.

WEATHER CUTS SOFTBALL SCHEDULE SHORT

Spring showers cut the scheduled 24-game softball season in half. The team ended the regular season with an 8-4 record and came up with a 1-1 record in sectional play.

The team was coached by Pat Edwards who was assisted by Cathy Applegate. The team lost only one player, Dee Austin, to graduation so they look to a good season next year with many letterman returning providing Mother Nature will cooperate.

GIRLS TRACK

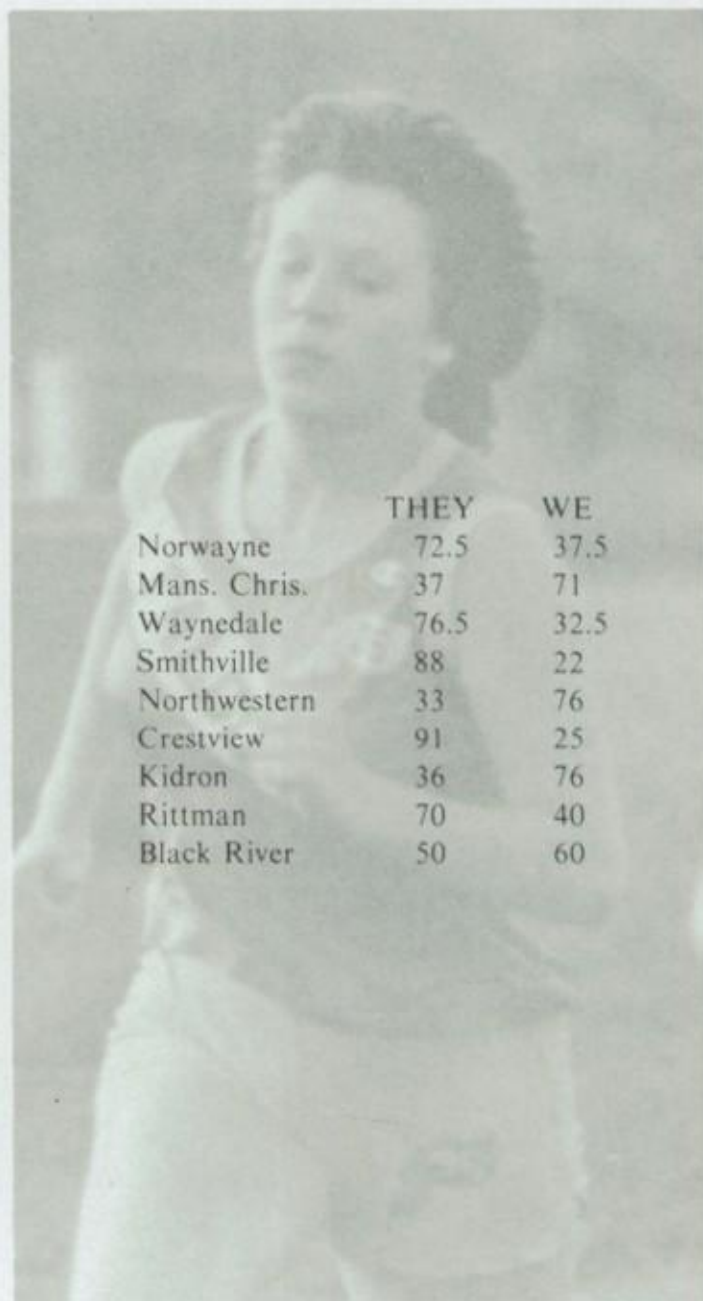

The Hillsdale girls track team finished up their season with 4 wins and 5 losses. At the Wayne County meet they finished 6th. Breaking school records this year were Gwen Killey in the long jump, Angie Slavkovsky in the discus, and the 2 mile relay team consisting of Angie Slavkovsky, Toby Franks, Jamie Sheriff, and Shawn Steere. As the sectional meet ended two girls advanced to Regionals, Gwen Killey in the hurdles and Shawn Steere in the 880.

TRACK FINISHES 6-3

The 1983 track team continued its winning tradition by finishing the year with a 6-3 record. Coached by Mr. Robert Valentine and Mr. Steve Burns the team was provided with leadership by seven seniors. The team once again finished 2nd in the Southern Division and finished 5th in the Wayne County League overall.

The Falcons put together many good efforts this year winning by scores of 104-28, 91-31, and 102-30. With many underclassmen returning the Falcons should be strong again next year.

RICHIE TAKES 5th

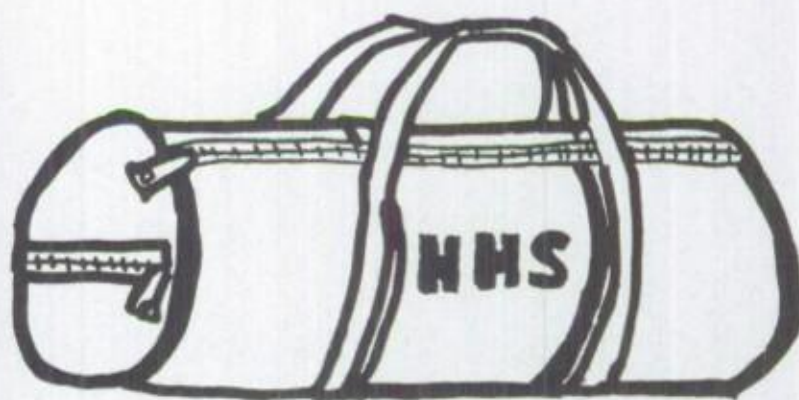

Dave Richilano worked his way along the tournament trail until he reached his goal to run in the State Track Meet. In the Sectional-District Meet Dave placed first in both the 100 meter and 200 meter dashes, earning him a trip to Mansfield for the Regionals. Also qualifying for the Regionals were Gwen Killey in the hurdles and Shawn Steere in the 800 meter run along with the 400 meter relay team composed of Drew Austin, Steve VanGilder, Skip McClure and Tom Strine.

Although they all made a fine showing in the Regionals Dave was the only one to pick up a ticket to the State Meet, qualifying for both the 100 meter and 200 meter dashes and breaking two school records which had stood for well over 10 years in doing so.

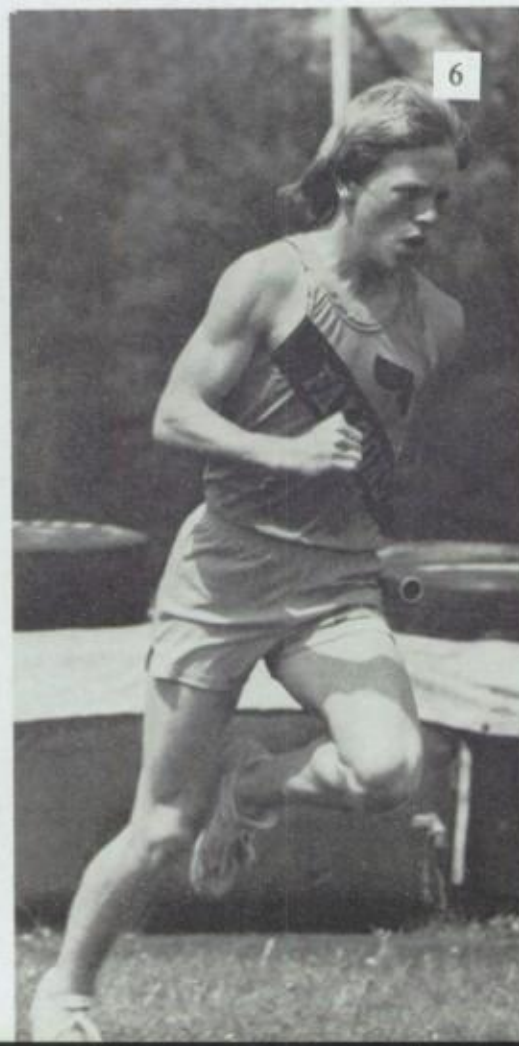

At the State Meet Dave qualified for the 200 meter finals and overcame the eighth lane position to place fifth. Good job Dave.

ENGLISH

The first two years of the English department provides the foundation for the high school English curriculum. They involve the practice and refinement of skills in reading, literature, grammar, composition, and speech. The sophomore year also involves the background for the study of world literature that will be further developed in the remaining two years. The junior year is a survey of American literature, and the senior year is a study of English literature, an academic English program is also provided for qualified sophomores, juniors, and seniors to prepare them for college work. A speech course is also given to provide the fundamentals necessary for being a good speaker.

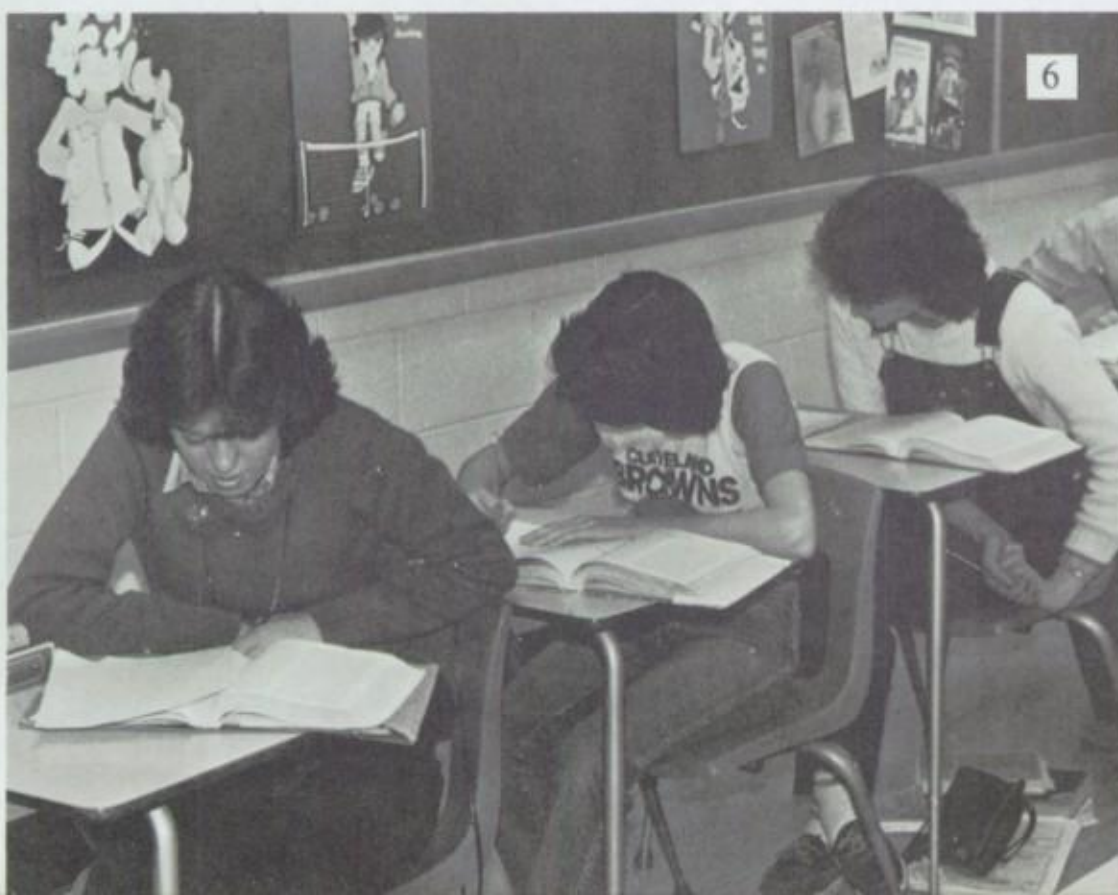

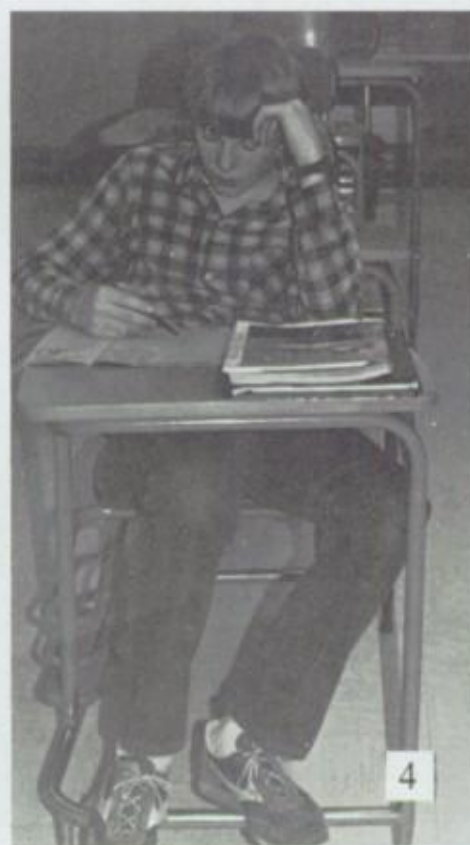

1. Dave Russell tries his hand at writing. 2. Kim Overholt takes time out to make a joke. 3. Freshmen English students listen to one of Mr. Kauffman's lectures.

MATH

The high school's mathematics department is composed of courses designed for each student. For the student who does not plan to further his education beyond high school and just wants to learn the fundamentals of arithmetic, there is General Mathematics and Pre-Algebra. For the student who plans to go on to college, there are four courses to be taken: Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II and Advanced Math. There is also Review Mathematics limited to seniors. This course covers the mathematics that one encounters in daily living. Mr. Nelson, who is chairman of the mathematics department, also provides an introduction to computer science as part of his Advanced Math curriculum.

The "Blue and Gray" and "The Winds of War" both television primetime specials along with other video tapes were used to supplement the social studies curriculum this year.

The Social studies department has three major divisions: world history, United States history and senior social studies.

The World history is taught by Mr. James Bargar and is offered to grades 9, 10, 11, and 12. It is a survey course which acquaints the students with man and his environment both past and present and provides incite for the future.

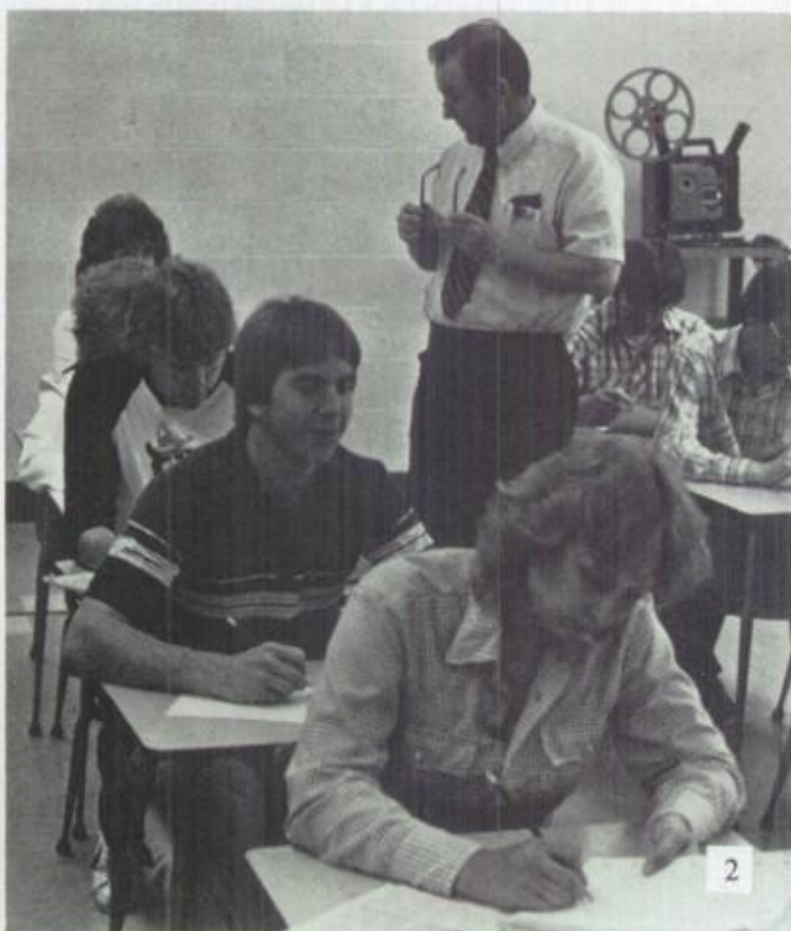

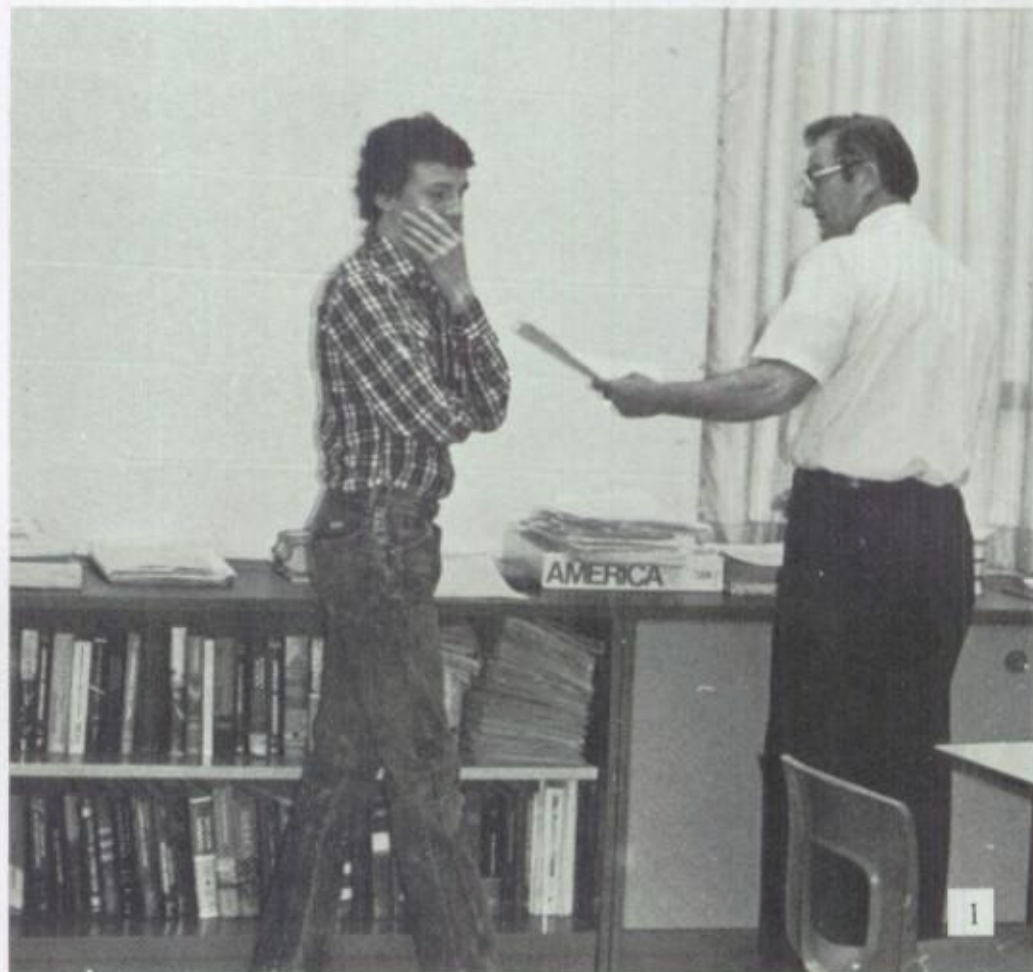

United States History is a comprehensive study of the history of the United States and is taught by Mr. Robert Valentine.

Senior Social Studies which is also a graduation requirement, focuses on social relationships, political life and economic problems. Mr. Ellsworth Cox and Mr. Robert Valentine teach this course.

All three courses are supplemented with research projects and audio visual materials including video tapes.

This year the "Blue and Gray" added new incite into the far reaching effects of the Civil War. Segments of the "Winds of War" were used to illustrate the many conflicts involved in World War II other than the battles themselves.

FRENCH

Not just a language but a culture, a way of life different than we Americans live. That is really what French is all about.

Although the classroom routines constantly involve listening, speaking, writing and reading, the study of French gives the student the opportunity to learn not only the language, but also about the land and people.

Students become acquainted with how the people live and their customs. They learn about their art, music, cuisine, and literature of the country.

Mrs. Loretta Snyder encourages her students to participate in plays, skits, recitations, and other activities where they can practice what they learn.

1. Anita Harned keeps French II alive with her mouth. 2. This French I class is obviously thrilled with today's work. 3. French I provides a rest period for these Freshmen. 4. French I listens attentively as today's lesson is presented.

ART

The Art Department offers four years of elective work for those who are interested.

Art I includes fundamentals of drawing, painting with water base paints and examining color theory.

Art II reviews fundamentals of drawing and advances to use of oils, plaster sculpture and ceramics.

Art III emphasizes the elements and principals of design, includes figure drawing and extends sculpture work to include both ceramic and wire.

Art IV review all of Art I, II and III, and goes on to advanced graphic processes. The use and operations of the Potter's wheel is included in Art IV. Individual project and techniques are also emphasized.

All four courses offer some degree of Art appreciation.

TYPING

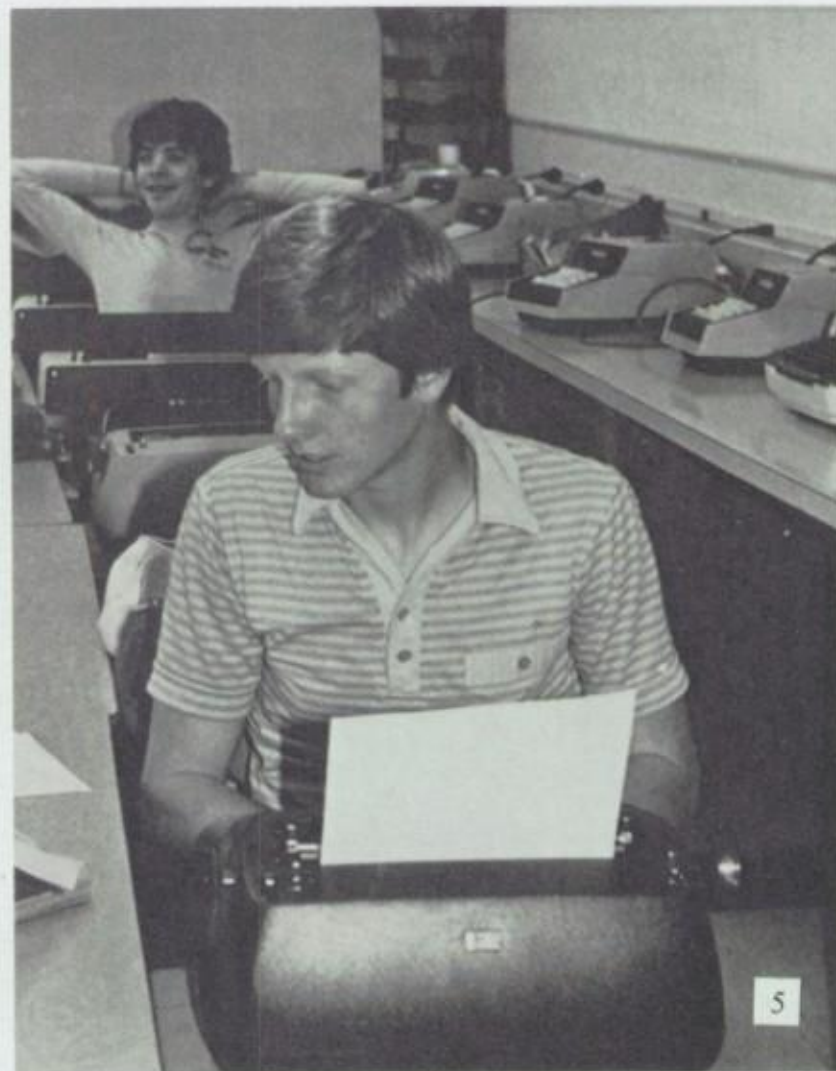

Typing is for everyone and is one of the most useful skills a student can acquire.

Hillsdale offers three courses in typing: personal typing, typing I, and typing II.

Personal typing, which is offered during the summer, includes learning how to type letters, manuscripts and simple tables.

Typing I is an introduction to the touch system of typing and Typing II goes on to improve secretarial and typing skill.

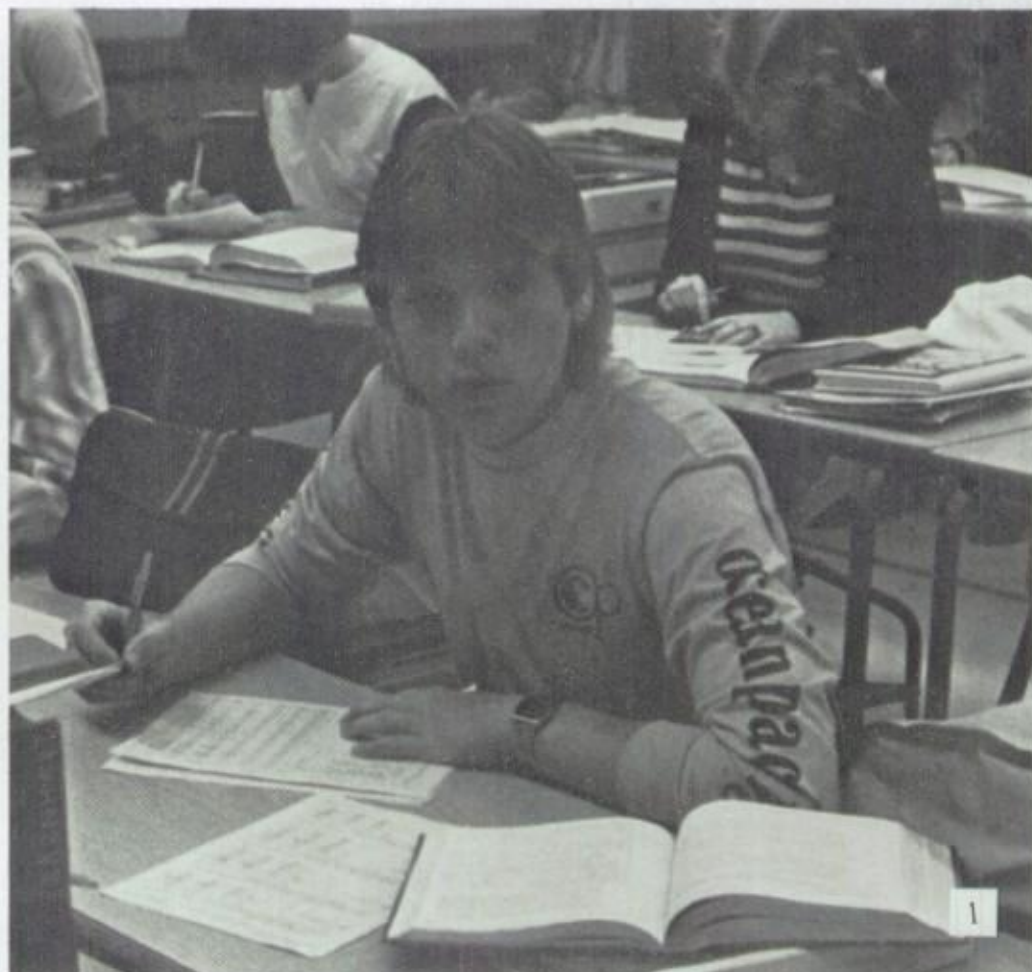

1. Mike Linder repairs part of his plaster project as Barb Hendrix works in Art. 2. Dave Russell shows us his clay model of Yoda before he put on the ears. 3. Typing is a wild and crazy class! 4. This typist nods off in the middle of an assignment. 5. Tim Cline finishes his work as Dennis Clem takes a break.

BUSINESS

Business subjects at Hillsdale range from accounting which gives students hands on experience at keeping books to personal typing, a summer program which helps students gain typing skills for their own personal use.

Mr. Blake Bach is the chairman of the business department and teaches this wide range of topics.

NEW LOOK IN '82

The marching band was under the direction of Mr. Steven Taylor. The band marched with a new look as they wore the new bright — colored uniforms purchased by the Band Boosters. Besides marching in the football games, the band performed at the State Fair, Ashland County fair and at an Ashland College football game. The band had an excellent sound and hopes to be even better next year.

STRAIGHT I's.

This year was an exciting one for the Hillsdale band highlighted by the invitation to perform along the parade route when President Reagan came to Ashland.

After two years of hard work the Band Boosters paid off the new uniforms. The year concluded with one of the greatest accomplishments in Hillsdale Band history the receiving of straight I's in state band competition.

CHOIR RATES I

The choir had an exciting year competing at contests and holding two concerts. The year started out with a music workshop at Malabar High School. Groups from the area went to hear other groups and receive comments on their own. Next came the Christmas concert which helped to brighten Christmas spirits. Mr. House worked hard as he prepared mixed chorus and girls glee for district contest. Each received a one rating and so next was State Contest. There the mixed chorus also received a one rating. As the year came to an end the annual Spring concert was held with different people doing solos. The year was concluded as the seniors sang in the choir for the last time at graduation.

HISTORIC VISIT

President Reagan visited Ashland on Monday, May 9th to grace the Ashbrook Memorial dinner in honor of the late Senator John M. Ashbrook. The dinner was held at the Ashland College Convocation Center. A place at dinner in the same room with the President cost $200.00 and tickets for the dinner and the reception afterwards cost curious Ohioans $1000.00. They considered the money well spent on a once in a lifetime chance to see the President of the United States.
